

Peter Curtis

Audit Manager, Air Products
SIG Chair – Audit, Control & Security

With one global instance supporting its worldwide businesses, Air Products places high reliance on SAP to provide many of its key controls. Over the last six years Peter has worked with project teams, consultants, business users and external auditors, providing audit and risk management experience to ensure that control is established as a critical success factor for all SAP implementations.