How to get there

For ease of access to the city, motorists travelling on the motorway system, from any direction, should join the M6 to approach Birmingham.

Directions from M42 North to M6

- Leave M42 at Junction 8 to join M6
- Follow directions below from M6 North/South

Directions from M40 South to M6

- M40 merges with M42
- leave M42 at junction 7 signposted M6 North
- Follow directions below from M6 North/South

Directions from M6 North/South

- (from M1 take signs for M6 to Birmingham)
- Leave M6 at Junction 6, and proceed onto A38M (Aston Expressway), following signs to "City Centre"

- Continue along the A38M for approximately 1.5 miles, passing over the flyover (still A38)
- Leave the flyover (at the "End of Motorway" sign) and move LEFT - DO NOT GO THROUGH TUNNEL
- Turn first left at the roundabout into Snowhill Queensway.
- Keep in the left hand lane, straight through a set of pedestrian lights.
- At the next set of lights, turn left into Colmore Circus. Follow the road as it bends right. Ahead of you is a small roundabout. Proceed straight across this and you will then see No.1 Colmore Square ahead of you on your right.
- There is a side vehicular entrance on the left of the building. Turn right into this entrance. You will then be met at the barrier by a security guard who will direct you to a parking space and issue you with a security pass. Once you have parked, follow the signs for the Ernst & Young reception taking the lift to the 9th floor.
