At SAP UK Ltd, Clockhouse Place, nr Heathrow

AGENDA

14:00 Testing in the modern world: Manual Testing with HP Sprinter

Simon Evans,
Commercial
Director
Experior

We all know that manual testing can be time consuming and resource heavy. In this session, which includes a software demo, you will hear about the future of manual testing with HP Sprinter, a manual testing tool which allows you to;

- Simplify your manual testing
- Save time and free up resource
- Data Injection
- Exploratory testing

14:45 Testing in the modern world: User Acceptance Testing, putting the A into UAT

Leandro Ghisio,
Senior Consultant,
Experior

User Acceptance Testing (UAT) is an important stage in your project delivery, but what should your users be testing? The key to UAT is User Acceptance not User Testing.

In this session you will hear;

- UAT planning, monitoring & reporting
- Your UAT strategy – taking a risk based approach
- Customer example of UAT delivery
- Understanding defects and how can you be one step ahead

15:30 Any Other Business & Close

All
