

Analytics Symposium – Stream Information

Data Visualisation & Reporting

Time	Session	Company & Speaker
13:15-13:45	Integrate SAP BusinessObjects into your applications How Kallidus have embedded SAP BusinessObjects into their Learning Management System (LMS) application to deliver reporting and dashboard capabilities to their customers using one BI platform.	Christian Key Kallidus
13:55-14:25	Get the most out of Web Intelligence by implementing these Best Practices Within the Business Intelligence space, SAP BusinessObjects Web Intelligence is the most used tool for business users working with their data. In this session we will provide you with a set of Best Practices to empower your business users further more in well performing Web Intelligence documents. The session will provide the top recommendations on how to improve the overall performance of your deployment using Web Intelligence and provide further information on how you can further improve your implementation.	Matthew Shaw & Frank Prabel SAP

15:00-15:30	What's new in BI 4.1 Support Pack6 Web Intelligence has the lion share of new features in SP6. Come and see many new features and improvements which include: 'Variants' (new for non-BW customers), Free Hand SQL, Dynamic default values for Universe Prompts. The presentation also includes improvements across the BI Platform and other clients.	Matthew Shaw & Frank Prabel SAP
15:45-16:10	Optimise your administration and migration projects on SAP BusinessObjects No matter how big your SAP BusinessObjects deployment is, you probably face administration and migration issues related to Audit, Impact Analysis, Backup/Recovery, promotion contents, publication, Security Management etc. This presentation aims at showing you how to enhance your SAP BusinessObjects administration and migration projects thanks to 360suite solutions.	Leonard Barnoux GB&SMITH