

Special Interest Group – S/4 HANA

Meeting to be held on Thursday 28th March 2019

At Birmingham City University, The Curzon Building. Birmingham

Room C502

AGENDA

09:30	Registration & Coffee	All
10:00	Introduction & Welcome Including a short overview of a recent trip to Walldorf to meet the SAP developers.	Ardavan Amini SIG Co-Chair
10:15	UKISUG Update	Robyn Brentley UKISUG
10:30	SAP Session 1 – Business Update with the following more Functional topics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SAP Strategy for the Intelligent Enterprise specifically S/4HANA • S/4HANA Market Status • S/4HANA Roadmap including S/4HANA Pricing 	Mike Longden SAP
11:15	COFFEE & NETWORKING	All
11:45	S/4HANA Conversions 101 – Approaches, Experiences, Tips and Tricks to Deliver Low Friction S/4HANA Conversions In this session Richard and Andy will outline the reasons why a system conversion should be the most appealing route to S/4HANA for the majority of existing SAP Customers. They will draw on real world experience gained by the itelligence Consulting and Managed Services Teams to lift the lid on a typical System Conversion. The objective is to understand how you can plot a course to S/4HANA adoption with the minimum level of unplanned disruption. You can expect to hear a range of tips and tricks, both functional and technical that can be leveraged to help you with your own S/4HANA journey.	Richard Stokes & Andy Steer itelligence
12:30	LUNCH & NETWORKING	All
13:15	SAP Session 2 – Technical Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • S/4HANA Architecture and Release/Maintenance strategy • System Conversion and Managing Simplifications • SAP Readiness Check • Summary of hints and tips 	Mike Longden SAP
14:00	Close	All

Sponsored By:

Hosted by: